Nineteen-year-old Penelope "Nell" O'Hara is geared up for the worst Christmas of her life. The guy she's been dating just dumped her for her best friend and all she has to look forward to over the break is a stay in Beggar's Hole, a tiny frozen town on the coast of Maine with her retired father, his latest masseuse girlfriend and her bratty twelve-year-old son. But one night after storming out of dinner to take a brooding walk among the rocks near their beach house, a misstep on the ice causes Nell's Christmas to take a rather different turn. She would have died were it not for a mysterious heat-exuding hero arriving out of nowhere to scoop her up in his arms and warm and dry her body. Coming to, Nell finds herself staring up into a pair of deep gold eyes, eyes belonging to a man who is quite unlike any she's seen before. Her savior introduces himself as Theon Aena. After a twist of fate causes her to cross paths with Theon again, Nell's drab, frozen Christmas soon spirals into a firestorm of passion, romance, revelations and danger.
