Making a Study Guide. Some teachers give out study guides, but if your teacher hasn't it's a good idea to create your own. Whether it's a first test or a final exam coming up, creating a study guide helps you figure out what you already know and what you still need to study, focusing your efforts on the material you still haven't learned. At the same time, making a study guide is a form of studying itself, since it's a way of carefully reviewing all the material for a test.

In today's uncertain world, storms will arise that test your faith in a loving heavenly Father. At times, the winds and waves of the world's deceptions will roll in and seek to erode your confidence in God. Without a firm foundation in the truth of God's Word, you may be tempted to go off course and accept less than God's best for you. However, when you hear Jesus' words, receive them, and put them into practice, you will construct a life the torrents cannot shake, "because it was well built" (Luke 6:48). The Purple Book will help you understand foundational truths that God wants you to hear on topics such as sin, salvation, spiritual gifts, prayer, worship, generosity, and evangelism. It will show you how the Bible is "God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness" (2 Timothy 3:16). It will help you understand that the faith you hold has true power to change lives and transform nations. It will give you a solid foundation the enemy cannot dismantle—and a heart shaped by knowledge of God's Word.

Makes Isaiah plain as a powerful witness of the Messiahship of Jesus Christ.
