I like to say that it includes half of a test: one math section and one science section. It might be a ploy to encourage customers to purchase other Barron's ACT books, but without additional practice tests, students cannot work on pacing themselves specifically for the math (or science for that matter) section.

Math and science are tested last when the kids are already mentally worn out by the first two sections, so the only way to get a true sense of their ability isto give them full length practice tests. To give section tests in the book makes them seem so much easier because the kids' minds are fresh and rested.
