School counselor Trinity Madison watches Leo struggle with his son, trying to overcome the mental barricade she's erected against the man who sent his son away when he's perfectly capable of caring for the child. The situation brings about her own unsettled feelings about giving her child up for adoption when she was young. But as she observes Leo's difficulties, his sacrifices, she softens toward the man. While he's in town, he ends up working with some old friends and Trinity on a committee to revitalize Bluestone. The former resort town is struggling and looking for ways to bring tourists back. This wasn't the adventure she'd signed up for... A sexy boss, a rough crossing, and pirates--all Brylie Winston wanted was a job to help her earn money to buy her own restaurant. She hopes to earn it by working as a chef on a cruise to Antarctica. But she's slept with her boss, which throws her off-balance even more than the rough seas and warnings of pirates in the area. And he's determined to have a repeat performance... Bad boy former snowboarder Marcus Devlin is running from his reputation, sent to learn the family business after decking a senator's son and making the papers. So maybe he indulged in a last-minute fling before boarding his family's cruise ship to Antarctica. Perhaps Fate is showing him that wasn't so bad--the gorgeous redhead who snuck out of his bed is on the cruise. She'll be a lovely distraction during his exile. But when modern-day pirates take over the ship, his instinct is to protect her and the other passengers. But what does a spoiled rich boy know about saving people's lives?
