Richard George Lipsey, OC FRSC is a Canadian academic and economist. He is best known for his work on the economics of the second-best, a theory that demonstrated that piecemeal establishing of individual first best conditions would not necessarily raise welfare in a situation in which all first best conditions could not be satisfied, an article that he co-authored with Kelvin Lancaster, a mathematical economist of high standing. He is currently Professor Emeritus of Economics at Simon Fraser Un

Economics for Business and Management is a concise introductory economics textbook which meets the needs of business studies and management students. The text focuses upon microeconomics, which accurately reflects the concerns of management students. The macroeconomics focuses on business cycles and the macroeconomic factors which affect firms (such as inflation and employment), and the balance of payments and exchange rates. Throughout the text there are case
