"Twelve-year-old Lily finds herself knee-deep in sugar and sheet music as she tries to juggle her responsibility to her bandmates and give her friend the best Sweet Thirteen party ever!"

Struggling with her lack of baking skills despite belonging to a culinary family, 12-year-old Lily forms a band and auditions for her school's annual Spring Fling at the same time she helps her friend create a mouthwatering dessert for an upcoming party. By the author of It's Raining Cupcakes.

Has Lily bitten off more than she can bake? A sweet treat from the author of It ' s Raining Cupcakes and Sprinkles and Secrets. On a scale of zero to ten, twelve-year-old Lily Hubbard is a zero when it comes to baking. Her cookies turn out salty, her cakes tend to collapse, and things are always overcooked. When Lily is invited to be a part of a mother-daughter book club called The Baking Bookworms, she is excited—and terrified. It seems like she ' s the only one who didn ' t inherit the baking gene. But she does have the music gene, which is why she ' s forming a band that will audition for their school ' s annual Spring Fling. If, that is, Lily can balance her priorities. Because Isabel, one of the Baking Bookworms, has asked Lily to help plan a surprise party for their mutual friend Sophie. Lily ' s task? To make a show-stopping, mouth-watering dessert. Uh. Oh. Can Lily rise to the occasion? Or will her efforts crumble faster than a stale birthday cake?

Twelve-year-old Isabel is dying to get out of her small town of Willow, Oregon, and travel like her best friend, Sophie. But when Isabel ' s mother decides to open up a cupcake shop across town, Isabel is once again stuck in Willow for the summer...until she learns of a baking contest where the finalists get an all-expenses paid trip to New York City to compete in the final bake-off. But Sophie is also entering the contest, and Isabel ' s mother has reservations. Can Isabel finally realize her dreams of leaving Willow without hurting two of the most important people in her life?

Twelve-year-old Sophie is excited to have the opportunity to audition for a television commercial until she learns the company is Beatrice's Brownies, the biggest competitor of her best friend's family cupcake shop. Includes recipes for chocolate treats.
