Girt (The Unauthorised History of Australia #1) by David Hunt
Girt. No word could better capture the essence of Australia... In this hilarious history, David Hunt reveals the truth of Australia's past, from megafauna to Macquarie - the cock-ups and curiosities, the forgotten eccentrics and Eureka moments that have made us who we are. Girt introduces forgotten heroes like Mary McLoghlin, transported for the crime of "felony of sock", and Trim the cat, who beat a French monkey to become the first animal to circumnavigate Australia.

Girt: The Unauthorised History of Australia - David Hunt
Girt introduces forgotten heroes like Mary McLoghlin, transported for the crime of "felony of sock", and Trim the cat, who beat a French monkey to become the first animal to circumnavigate Australia. It recounts the misfortunes of the escaped Irish convicts who set out to walk from Sydney to China, guided only by a hand-drawn paper compass, and explains the role of the coconut in Australia's only military coup.

Girt by David Hunt | Black Inc.
"Girt" is an often hilarious, satirical take on Australian history until roughly the 1840s. While the author has certainly done his research, the goal of the book is to entertain as well as to enlighten, so this is no dry, factually-driven tome of the sort that made Australian history so boring for so many of us in the past.
