The title of my review comes from a former state executioner who oversaw around 120 inmates put to death. He was saying that on your tombstone you have the day you were born, the day you died and the dash between these dates is your life. Werner Herzog's documentary Into The Abyss is an exploration of a triple homicide case that occurred in Texas which led to a death sentence for Michael Perry and a life sentence for Jason Burkett. The crime was just a profound waste, a pointless tragedy ...
