David Foster Wallace Reader: 9780241961964: Amazon.com: Books

This book is a rare edition of David Foster Wallace's oeuvre, a memoriam or epitaph of his greatest works after he died a tragic suicidal death. One of the greatest American writers of all time, and a true genius, Wallace spent his years writing to speak for those who couldn't speak for themselves and devoting his life to the impoverished and disabused.

The David Foster Wallace Reader: Wallace, David Foster...

David Foster Wallace was a brilliant writer. His command of English is as good as it gets and this tome (48 hours and 45 minutes in Audible) is often difficult but in the end rewarding. The fiction is particularly strange and the theme of characters who are deeply psychologically flawed is both ironic and at times tedious.
