About The Hour of Our Death. This remarkable book—the fruit of almost two decades of study—traces in compelling fashion the changes in Western attitudes toward death and dying from the earliest Christian times to the present day. A truly landmark study, The Hour of Our Death reveals a pattern of gradually developing evolutionary stages in our perceptions of life in relation to death, each stage representing a virtual redefinition of human nature.

The hour of death is a sacred moment because it is a passing from this life to the one promised by the Lord. It marks the end of our earthly pilgrimage and the beginning of our pilgrimage to the kingdom of heaven. ‘ Let me go to the Father ’ s house. ’

~~At the hour of our death – Catholic Digest~~

At the Hour of Our Death. Death, like birth, is part of a process. However, the processes of death are often shielded from view. Today in Western society most families leave to a complete stranger the responsibility of preparing a loved one ’ s body for its final resting place. Traditional mourning practices, which allowed for the creation of Victorian hair jewelry or other memento mori items, have fallen out of fashion.

No! because with that, God is not on our schedule, He is not on our time, He meets us in His time and His time alone, and man made the clock, man made the hour, so His time may not be an actual date and time, we think it is, but the “ season ” or “ His time ” may simply be when we are done on this earth.

~~Is The Time Of Your Death Predestined By God?~~

God knows when we will die. God knows how we will die. God ’ s attitude toward physical death is not like ours. Therefore, God has an appointed time of our death. We do not know when this time is, but He wants us to live each day to its fullest because we do not know if today will be our last day upon the earth (Ephesians 5:15-16; James 4:13-15).

Yes, our own decisions have an undeniable impact on the manner, timing, and place of our death. How does this affect our lives practically? We are to live each day for God. James 4:13-15 teaches us, “ Now listen, you who say, 'Today or tomorrow we will go to this or that city, spend a year there, carry on business and make money.' Why, you do ...

Death is social, and the death ritual has a central place in the society. "The Death of the Self" is moves more into the middle and late middle ages. Here, death is used by the mendicant orders of Christianity to convert a quasi-pagan population. Thus, there is a corresponding rise in individual's concern with their own death.
