The Renaissance, with its belief in a new world in the making and its eagerness to embrace any new form of thinking, may represent the first "New Age" movement—i.e., the first secular millennial movement on record. From the Renaissance onward European culture developed an ever-more secular strain of millennialism. In a sense, the longer God tarried, the more humans took over his job of bringing about the perfect kingdom.

we believe in radical hope. The Black Millennial Renaissance is a network of Black Millennials and their allies fighting to end systemic racism. In the spirit of our ancestors and their fight for Civil Rights, we are answering the call of the Black Lives Matter Movement to organize, educate, and empower society to heal the wounds of slavery and the decades of discrimination and oppression that have followed.
