Manolin is Santiago’s only friend and companion. Santiago taught Manolin to fish, and the boy used to go out to sea with the old man until his parents objected to Santiago’s bad luck. Manolin still helps Santiago pull in his boat in the evenings and provides the old man with food and bait when he needs it.

The Old Man and the Sea Characters | GradeSaver

Since The Old Man and the Sea is the story of a man’s struggle against a marlin, it is tempting to see the novella as depicting man’s struggle against nature. In fact, through Santiago, the novella explores man’s relationship with nature. He thinks of the flying fish as his friends, and speaks with a warbler to pass the time.
