Would you consider the audio edition of The Sorcery Code: Volume 1 to be better than the print version? I would consider the audio version just as good as the print version, really liking the narrators use of her voice to convey different characters.

Dima Zales – with help from the wonderful narration by Emily Durante – paints a compelling world full of intrigue, seduction, and action. There were many good, well-rounded characters throughout the book, and I greatly enjoyed that few of the characters can be pegged as good or evil.
