1: Use scene transitions to shift between time periods. There are many ways to use scene transitions and breaks in your book. One way to use scene transitions is to switch between present experiences and backstory. Example of introducing backstory in a transition. Zadie Smith uses this type of scene transition effectively in her novel White Teeth (2000). In her first chapter, set in 1974 and 1945, the owner of a Halaal butchery saves Archie Jones from committing suicide in his car.
