What's So Great About Christianity? - The Mission Church

Although atheism posits a universe without meaning in most of its current forms, Christianity makes life a decent drama in which we play a leading role in which the most ordinary event takes on a great significance. Modern life is generally characterized by gray disillusionment. Christianity offers us a world that is once again enchanted.

WHAT'S SO GREAT ABOUT CHRISTIANITY? - Fruits Of Spirit

First, Christianity makes sense of who we are in the world. All of us need a framework in which to understand reality, and part of Christianity's appeal is that it is a worldview that makes things fit together. Science and reason are seamlessly integrated in a Christian framework, because modern science emerged from a Christian framework.
